Poorly drained soils occur along watercourses occupying nearly one percent of the land area.

The minimum size delineation is approximately three acres. The minimum size delineation is approximately three acres. The minimum size delineation is approximately three acres.

Soil Scientist, is necessary to confirm the presence or absence of Inland Wetlands. Long narrow drainage delineations, generally less than five acres, may be included in the map. Inland Wetlands are delineated to the nearest one hundredth of a mile.

The soils data shown on this map. Visit the CT DEP website to see the full list of soils designated as Inland Wetlands.

Alluvial and floodplain soils range from clay, silt, sand or gravel. Alluvial and floodplain soils range from clay, silt, sand or gravel. Alluvial and floodplain soils range from clay, silt, sand or gravel.