The soils were mapped at a scale of 1:12,000 with a minimum size of 0.5 acres. Most of our marshes and bogs are on poorly drained soils, the most poorly drained soils generally occur on level land or in depressions, in areas where they were mapped as a map unit with the greatest depth of water. The soils are generally very poorly drained and areas with poorly drained soils are indicated on this map.