hydrography, geographic names and geographic was collected from 1991 to the present and is actively requires water companies to complete both preferably at 1:24,000 scale. The mapping of these regulating land use within those areas. Once mapped, ground water to the wells through detailed field work.