The map shows the locations of Connecticut’s natural drainage basins. The colors of the basins correspond to the following categories:

- Major Basins
- Regional Basins
- Subregional Basins
- Local Basins

EXPLANATION

The map is based on the following data sources:

- Connecticut Geological Society Geologic Maps
- Connecticut Department of Transportation highway information
- Connecticut Electric & Gas Company information
- Connecticut Department of Natural Resources information

DATA SOURCES

- Connecticut Geological Society Geologic Maps
- Connecticut Department of Transportation highway information
- Connecticut Electric & Gas Company information
- Connecticut Department of Natural Resources information

The map was created by the Center for Land Use Education and Research at the University of Connecticut. It was made available for download on their website.