Explanation

This map depicts critical habitat areas and is intended to be used as a pre-screening tool to determine the potential impact of a project on species and their habitat. The display of critical habitat areas on the map is for informational purposes only. If the project's actual work in the affected area is different than what is depicted on this map, the project may not be impacted by the critical habitat regulations. Please contact the Natural Diversity Data Base for more information on the requirements for projects at state listed species and the need to be a State Listed Species. To locate the project boundaries and any additional affected areas, use the CTECO Interactive Map Viewers at Natural Diversity Data Base Digital Data. For more information about State Listed Species, contact Natural Diversity Data Base at (860) 424-3011. Additional information can be found at Natural Diversity Data Base Digital Data.

Data Sources

- NEBB Data: Connecticut state and federal listed species, as well as state and federal critical habitats, are depicted on this map. The NEBB data are from the Natural Diversity Data Base. These data may have been acquired from additional sources, such as project-specific studies or surveys, and are intended to be used for informational purposes only. The NEBB data are not intended for use in regulatory decisions or as a substitute for on-the-ground surveys.
- State Map Data: This map is intended to be printed at its original scale. The map data are from the Natural Diversity Data Base Digital Data. The state map data are intended to be used for informational purposes only and are not intended for use in regulatory decisions.
