EXPLANATION

This map depicts known locations of state and federal listed species and critical habitats. The map is intended to be used as a pre-screening tool to determine the potential for impacts on state listed species and the need for a Natural Diversity Data Base review. To use the map, locate the project boundaries and any additional affected areas on the map. If the project is within a shaded area there may be a potential conflict with a listed species or natural community. For more information use DEEP eFile <https://filings.deep.ct.gov/DEEPPortal/> to submit a Request for Natural Diversity Data Base State Listed Species Review or Site Assessment. More detailed instructions are available along with the request form on the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP) webpage. <https://portal.ct.gov/deep-nddbrequest>

Use the CTECO Interactive Map Viewers at <https://cteco.uconn.edu> to more precisely search for and locate sites and to view NDDB Areas with aerial imagery.

DATA SOURCES

NDDB Information - Locations of state and federal listed species and critical habitats are based on data collected by the Connecticut Department of Energy & Environmental Protection, private conservation groups and the scientific community and compiled by the Natural Diversity Data Base (NDDB). The information is not necessarily the result of comprehensive or site-specific field investigations; in some cases locations have been derived from literature or museum searches or historic records. Exact locations have been buffered to produce generalized locations. The exact species or community location falls somewhere within the shaded area and not necessarily in the center. Information on this map does not include Natural Area Preserves, designated wetland areas or wildlife concentration areas.

political boundaries, railroads, airports, hydrography, geographic names and geographic places. Streets and street names are from Tele Atlas copyrighted data. Base map information is neither current nor complete.
