The map depicts the locations of rare and natural areas within Southington, CT. The map includes information on natural diversity data base areas. Information on this map does not include exact locations due to the need for generalized natural areas. For more information, complete a request form and a natural diversity data base report will be provided. Use the CT DNR Digitized Map Sources 2018 online website or contact the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection for more information about rare and natural areas.

DATA SOURCES

The map is based on data from the Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, Natural Heritage and Endangered Species Program, and other sources.

EXPLANATION

This map depicts the locations of rare and natural areas within Southington, CT. Information on this map does not include exact locations due to the need for generalized natural areas. For more information, complete a request form and a natural diversity data base report will be provided. Use the CT DNR Digitized Map Sources 2018 online website or contact the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection for more information about rare and natural areas.