This map depicts general locations of state and federal protected Areas. Buffering has been performed to protect areas of state listed species and the areas in a Natural Diversity Data Base State Listed species are within the shaded area and not necessarily in exact locations. Locations have been buffered to produce generalized community and compiled by the Natural Diversity Data Base (NDB) State Listed species and information. More detailed instructions are available on-line at the Connecticut Department of Energy & Environmental Protection’s Natural Diversity Data Base (NDB) website: www.ct.gov/energy-naturalresources.
